

Art allows all children the opportunity to shine	Sketch books carried through key stages to show children's progression	Art lessons provide children the opportunity to study famous artists and Architects through time.	Progression of skills table supporting teachers with how children should be progressing	WAGOLL sketchbooks to support teachers with expectations
Children enjoy Art and DT lessons – Pupil Voice	Art and design work displayed in classrooms to show case amazing work and skills.	Opportunities for outdoor learning and sketching	Medium term planning available to support planning and teaching ideas	Art curriculum is accessible to everyone
Children work together cross school during arts week to create a whole school project as working together everyone achieves more	 <h2 style="text-align: center; color: white;">Art at Spring Vale – What does it look like?</h2>			Children learn the importance of recycling through collecting materials for DT projects
Working together- Parents and careers are invited to join children during Christmas and Easter craft sessions	Journey books contain a piece of artwork from Nursery to year 6	Plenty of art resources that can be used throughout the school	Cross curricular links throughout the curriculum	Art provides children opportunities to express themselves through resources available at school.
Miss Evans Art award for exceptional achievements	Updated skills progression ladders stuck in sketch books	Art/ DT work is celebrated in 'Subject Well Done' assemblies	Positive sketchbook monitoring after art's week	Artist workshops to build pupils Art and Design skills.